Vicki Wiepking, owner of Rasa Deva Wellness, is a graduate of The McKay Method™ School of Energy Healing in Bozeman, MT. She is also a certified Flower Essence Practitioner and, in addition to her private practice, is currently teaching energy healing classes. Before beginning her healing studies, Vicki earned a B.A. from the University of Minnesota, and was the director of a Classical Studies program at a private school.

A deep belief in the healing power of nature inspired her to study herbs, crystals, and essential oils, eventually leading her to energy healing. Through her expertise and experience as a teacher and counselor, she hopes to help people understand their emotional and physical patterns, and develop balance between body, mind and spirit.

When she is not doing energy work, you can find her rafting and skiing with her husband, practicing yoga or snuggling with their cat, Merlin.

"Through energy healing, flower essences, personal process work and lifestyle advice, I create customized healing plans for every individual. I do not try to squeeze you into a 'one size fits all' solution. I believe that everyone is unique, has specific needs and must follow their own path to vibrant health. In my office, I hope you will find a warm, comforting and practical setting to face your inner issues and find your divine gifts."
